CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 6 .- Returns from Hamliton County's vote, with seven precincts to hear from, give the following results: Fora-ker, 32,010; Campbell, 39,633. Campbell's plurality, 7,643. It is settled that one Republican Senator is elected, George A. Schneider. The detailed vote shows an almost unbroken fall-ing off in Feraker's vote from the rest of the ticket in all the precincts. In Cincinnati he has a plurality in only eight of the thirty wards and these range from 10 to 527. Campbell's ward pluralities range from 70 to 1,129. In eight wards he has more than 400 plurality for each. This morning returns have been re-ceived from 818 of the 2,190 voting precincts outside of Cincinnati, showing the vote for Foraker, 136,752; Campbell, 131,536; Helwig, 6,763. The same in 1877 gave Foraker 134,100; Powell, 119,899; Sharp, 7,124. This shows a gain for Campbell of over 9 to the precinct. While this ratio is a matter of chance, it still gives some data for estimate.

It has been almost constant between six and nine, and at the lower ratio it would give Campbell enough to carry his election. Republicans find some consolation in the theory that the townships to be heard from, being per precinct, but the ratio would have to be brought below five to the precinct to give oraker a chance.

INCOMPLETE RETURNS. News from the State of Ohio is fragmentary and incomplete. In Butler County Campbell's majority is estimated at 8,300. Mr. Campbell lost his own precinct in Hamilton, and there were Republican gains at his birth-place, Middletown. But in Oxford Township there was a decided Democratic gain. Warren County gives about twelve hundred Republican majority. Montgomery County claimed by the Democrats, with Senaton and Representative, whi would be a gain of one in each House. In Ross County the Rerublicans have 300 majority, electing two Representatives, Massie (Rep.) is elected Senator in that disrict. Washington County elects the entire Republican ticket, except that Rieser (Dem.) Clermont County shows heavy Democratic gains. The Democrats elect their entire county ticket and will have about 300 maority. In Allen County the estimate is ority. In Allen County the estimate is 1,300 for Campbell. Summit County shows a gain of the Democrats of 1,100 over 1887. Guernsey County gives Foraker about 800 majority and elects the whole Republican county ticket. Fayette County shows a Democratic gain of 800. In Highland County the Republican representative is elected. Madison County shows Republican gains and elects the whole county ticket, except auditor. In Brown County the entire Democratic county ticket is elected. Clinton County shows Democratic gains. but Democratic county ticket is elected. Clinton County shows Democratic gains, but the Republican ticket was elected. Lawrence County estimates a Republican majority of 1,800. Meigs County is Republican by 1,500. Clarke County gives about 900 Republican majority, but there is a heavy Democratic gain. Greene County shows Democratic gains, but Foraker's majority is estimated at 1,800. Preble County elects a Republican Representative. In Muskingum County the vote on Representative is close.

HAMILTON COUNTY'S VOTE. The completed footings of the entire vote of Hamilton County shows: Foraker, 33,445; Campbell, 40,814; Campbell's plurality, 7,165. Lieutenant-Governor—Lampson (Rep.), 35,660; Marquis (Dem.), 39,315; Marquis' pl 3,523. State Treasurer—Brown (Rep.), 26,503; Boden (Dem.), 28,063; Boden's plurality, 2,250. Schneider (Rep.), for Senator, has a plurality of 2,034 over Sextro (Dem.), who has the lowest vote on the Democratic list. The highest Democratic vote list. The highest Democratic vote for Senator was Brown, 38,885; lowest, Sextro, 36.035. The highest Republican vote on Sen-ator was Schnelder, 38,069; lowest, Blair, 34,-648. Bellamy Storer led the Republican list for Representative, receiving 36,905 votes. Horner, colored, received the lowest, 33,023, The highest on the Democratic list was Ma-lon, 38,364; the lowest, Noian, 37,788. Another Estimate.

DUBBUQUE, Io., Nov. 6.—The Heroid (Dem.) has returns from thirty-five counties—one-third of the State—giving gains for Boies (Dem.) of 18,000. If this ratio continues the Heroid claims Boies will have 10,000 plurality.

BIG DEMOGRATIC GAIRS.

The Heroid has returns from one-half the counties in Iowa and they figure up 13,500 majority for Boies, Demogratic candidate for Governor. The other counties will reduce this somewhat, so that it is probable that his majority will run 5,000 to 8,000. Every county beard from shows a Demogratic gain. The tew additional returns received this forences show till heavier gains than had been estimated. For instance, Dubuque County gives 4,200 instead of 4,000 majority, and dispatches from Cedar, Pottawatomic amounting to 1,500 more than at first calculated. No one here, either Democratic or Republicus, has any doubt of Boles' election. Chairman Duon of the Democratic State Committee sends a dispatch here from headquarters at Des Moines dated at 10 o'clock this morning, stating that the coumittee is certain that Boles is elected by a safe plurality.

The CAUSES OF DEFEAT.

The citizens who were foremost in the nonpartisan movement are feeling rather blue over the result of the election. They attribute the defeat of Messrs Dutro, Brownell and Butler entirely to the apathy of the more intelligent class of voters. Judge Fisse said this morning that he considered that the people's had polled all the votes it could command, and had any interest been manifested by the "so called intelligent voters" that the non-partisan ticket would certainly have been elected. This was the sentiment of one and

"As a Democrat I am so gratified with the results in the State elections that I am consoled for the result in the local school election. As to the latter, the falling off in the total vote of over 7,000 is a sufficient explanation. There was no exciting issue to bring out the voters.

to elect whom they please. Had a majority of the non-partisan citizons onndidates been elected, Chas. F. Miller or Jack P. Richardson would most probably have been selected, but their chances are new considered to be vary slim unless there should be an unexpected change in the sentiments of some of the newly elected members. The aspirations of E. M. M. Bosley, which were ridiculed by his opponents before the election, are not now so shourd as many thought them. Mr. Bosley took a great interest in the election yesterday, and he manifested his interest from the time the first nominations were made. He visited all the districts and became familiar with all the candidates. He also attended conferences of the Turner Hall supporters, and the general construction put on his activity was that he was looking for something big. His immediate friends when asked what the Elsventh District Director was after laughingly replied that he wanted to be President of the board. This was thought to be merely abluff to obtain promises from members who desired to be selected for that honorary position. It is not now so considered; Bosley's aspirations are believed to be genuine and the strength he can likely command is being seriously estimated. If Bosley is willing to resign bis claims to the presidency to any other aspirant it is conceded that he will not be elighted in the committee assignments. Among the new members who are most prominently mentioned as probable presidents are Henry L. Rogers and Drf Hugo Auler. Walter F. McEntire is said to be ambitious also.

Before the day of election Mr. Bosley went around to the various candidates who he thought would most probably be elected and invited them to participate in a cancens to be held this evening relative to the organization of a new board. At this cancue, the place for holding which is not known, a slate will undoubtedly be fixed up, if Mr. Bosley and his strongest supporters are able to carry out their plans.

The meeting to be held to-morrow by the tockbolders of the St. Louis Gas-Light Co. to decide in what manner to dispose of its plant and privileges is looked forward to with ent year very few people outside of the officers and directors of the company had any idea of the difficulties that will be encountered in winding up the affairs of the company and putting it away in its little grave until the Post-Disparof appeared on the street yesterday with an account of the complication. Of course the vote of President McMillan, who will hold the proxies of the Hollins & Co. syndicate, which controls eleven-twelfths of the stock, will decide how the plant, property, character and ordinance, franchises and privileges of the company shall be disposed of. Then the trouble will be to carry out his suggestion. The stockholders outside the trust are apt to compain and bring auits in court to prevent the carrying out of the plan whatever it may be. These outside stockholders elaim that the company has acquired valuable ordinance privileges, and that steps should be taken to operate it until the year 1920, at which time their franchise made by the city ordinance will expire. If the properly is sold at public anction some outside syndicate may come in and buy it up, and even if the Holins syndicate secures it either at public anction some outside syndicate may come in and buy it up, and even if the Holins syndicate secures it either at public anction or private sale there is apt to be trouble in consolidating it with the other three companies here, which are all controlled by the same parties. The anti-trust law would interfere with the consolidation of 'he companies, but this will probably be evaded by the Laciede Company buying up the others instead of consolidating. Of course this would be a virtual consolidation, and the courts might hold that it comes under the anti-trust law. Comptroller Stevenson recommends the sale by the city of 199 of its 200 shares of stock in the St. Louis Gas Light Company for $575 a share, bolding one share, so as took he he at ny time to examine the books. As the other outside stock holders refuse to sell their holdings to the Trust for that figure, and will probably ent year very few people outside of the offi-cers and directors of the company had any but Mr. Milis has not been paid, and he has brought suit for it.

The taking of depositions was begun about a month ago, but only two sessions were held and since then they have adjourned from time to time. At one of the sessions it appeared in the tentimony that $100,000 of stock had been set aside to pay for the passage of the bill through the Assembly, and Mr. Milis will endeavor to learn what has become of that stock. The company says it has never been issued.

The position of the case is simply this: The Subway Co. acknowledges its debt to Mr. Milis, but says that at the expiration of the ten days after February II it did not have the money to pay him and that he waived the ten days 'limit and agreed to accept the money at a later time when the company could pay it.

Mr. Milis takes exception to this, denies that he waived or could waive the stipulations of the written contract, and wants his money now.

investigation. It was held in the board room, on the third floor of the City Hail. Before the judges lay marked copies of the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH. All of the witnesses were thoroughly familiar with the statements published in the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH. Hord and Flaherty were there and so was Thavonat. Hord and Flaherty had no witnesses but themselves. Thavonat had brought in all the inspectors now working under him, and a great many others, who had at different times been employed under him. The investigation began with the questioning Street Commissioner Burnet asked Flaherty for the money before we could get it."

After this the investigating for about an hour consisted in intening to the volunteered statements of Hord, Fisherty and Thavonat.

Hord said: "Wheeler gave Thoronat money, because I saw him do it myself."

Thavonat was questioned by the Commissioner. He admitted receiving the watch, the gold pen and the turkeys, but not the umbrella. As to the gold pen Thavonat said: "Fisherty came to me and said he had a gold pen which he had no use for, and that the children were knocking it about the house, so he thought he would bring it down and give it to me. As to the turkeys, I never knew who they came from until after. McRoberts and others often won turkeys in raffies, and I thought at first they had sent them. As to taking money, if I ever borrowed any I always paid it back. In regard to the present, my wife gave his wife presents as valuable, if not more valuable, than any his wife gave mine."

At this point a note was received from Fred Frisby saving he was sick and could not appear but that he wanted so state that Thavonat did not owe him a cent, had borrowed money but had paid it back, and that the only donation ever made was 55 for a watch that Mr. Thavonat knew nothing about until he got it.

Fisherty here chipped in and told of how a plan was at one time aloot to buy Thoronat groceries.

Hord followed Flaherty with a story of an effort which was made to get up a second subscription and get a gold chain for the waten instead of a plated one.

Mr. Burnet then asked Hord, "You left the department in June; do you know why?"

"YES; BECAUSE MI DONATIONS STOPPED and I got no more work, so I had to stop."

Here a discussion arose between Hord and Thavonat, a plumber named Reardon and the Street Commissioner concerning the laying of

A SURRENDER AT DISCRETION.

A meeting of the Railroad Commission was called, and after an anxious consultation it was decided to surrender horse, foot and dragoons to the millers and countermand the offensive ruling late yesterday afternoon the commissioners decided to notify the millers that they would have to pay but 40 conts a car for out inspection, and that wagon inspection would be based on the same ratio. This is the price formerly paid. The feed stores will under the present ruling have to pay out inspection, but this it was explained, was not because the Chief Inspector desired to impose this tax, but because he was compelled so to do by the law. It was shoped by this means to prevent the inspection fees from being cut off, but several of the miliers still declare that they will buy grain in the country or in Illinois, and do nothing to add to the salary fund of the Burks experts.

EAST SIDE INSPECTION.

nothing to add to the salary fund of the Burks experts.

East SIDE INSPECTION.

The East Side grain receivers were greatly encouraged by the unconditional surreader of Burks to the millers, and are more than ever inclined to refuse to grant him the privilege of replenishing the coffers of the State from inspection fees earned in Illinois. The Committee appointed by the Merchant's Exchange to report on East Side inspection has not yet met, and it is unlikely that it will be called together for some time to come. The exporters are nearly universally opposed to State inspection, and two members of the committee, C. F. Orthwein and R. M. Hubbard are heavy exporters. John C. Fears is also understood to favor retaining the East Side inspection, while Redmond Cleary is uncertain. The only pronounced advocate of Burks is H. F. Langenberg. With a committee so composed, it is believed that it will be impossible to to obtain an indorsement of the Missouri country experts, and in the meantime the grain inspection east of the river remains in the hands of the Merchants' Exchange. Iff is decided to make no change, grain receivers deciare that 90 per cent of the wheat received can be sent to East St. Louis, leaving Burks with a very small amount to pay his immensely increased force.

asion for congratulations all around on the glorious result in Virginia.

The 52,000 registered voters of St. Louis who falled to vote at the school election were silent because they did not care how the schools are managed, or because they thought one ticket about as good as the anything of the kind. other, and were unwilling to take the responsibility of electing either over the other. Nevertheless they are as distinetly responsible for the election of the Turner Hall ticket as the 10,000 who voted for it.

But the men permitted by this silent vote to take part in the management of the schools, will make a great mistake if they act on the idea that their election by default is an indorsement by the St. Louis people of "the Teutonic liberal-education" policy which the Turner Hall meeting was called to promote. The capture of that meeting by the Macklin element, and its careful avoidance of the questions that controlled the election two years ago, were all that saved them from an overwhelming defeat as opponents of "economical every-day education."

If their election means a renewal of the waste of school money on book and stationery jobs, on German and a dozen fancy "cults," where they only prevent 75 per cent of the children from having sufficient school room and from learning reading, writing and arithmetic, there will be a much fuller vote at the next elec-

In Chicago where this "liberal education" idea still wastes the limited school life of the primary grades on German, drawing, modeling in clay, etc., the report of the Board of Education shows that 75 per cent of the children in the four lower grades remain in school less than two years and a half, or 500 school days, and that this precious time is so wasted on many things that they are deprived of instruction in the only things that can be of practical advantage to them, and that they are but one degree removed from absolute illiteracy when poverty compels them to leave school for the workshop.

St. Louis has had enough of that sort of writing and arithmetic, and she wants crowds them sixty or eighty into one proin, because the school money is wasted on other things, and does not provide enough school room or enough teachers

POLITICAL JOBBERY REBUKED.

About the meanest piece of political jobbery which has been brought to light details of which the New York WORLD published last week.

The story of the attempted deal was told by a London banker. MAHONE offered to arrange matters to the satisfaction of the English bondholders in exchange for $100,000 with which to carry the legislative election and place himself in the Senate. The arrangement proposed practically amounted to the sale of the State to A British syndicate.

The Virginia Legislature was to be deceived into bringing suit against the State of West Virginia for a part of the indebtedness, and thus having been decoved into the courts judgment could be secured against the State itself.

This diabolical plot involved the purchase of the electoral will of the State through bribery, the sale of official power for personal gain and the deception of the people of the State through their representatives into a scheme to bring farmers have imbibed a good many sound the commonwealth under the sheriff's chops, although offered on a silver plat- hammer and into the merciless clutches to be more tired of monopoly than they of a lot of English speculators. The aim were last fall. of it was the aggrandizement and enrich-

Of course the Virginians whose votes were asked by the arch-plotter MAHONE to place him in the highest office in their gift repudiated him. But the revelation has deep interest for all citizens of the United States because MAHONE by the National Republican Adminthe leaders of the Republican party RUSSELL may not have quite enough and was in receipt of financial President and his advisers were on Mafurnish funds for his campaign assessments were made on the employes

The importance of the revelation to the mourning over the selection of MAHONE representatives supported a man who as the Administration boss and leader for stands convicted of the worst kind of political jobbery. It is in line with that form of political debasement which rewarded WANAMAKER with the Postmastership in return for boodle, which protected Dudley in his infamous "blocks of five" crime and which permits such men as QUAY and DUDLEY to use the power of the Administration for the furtherance of dishonest schemes, If the farmers are beginning to vote right as the people allow such things to go unre-

THAT surprising Democratic victory in Iowa is ascribable to a combination of several elements of popular dissatisfaction with Republican rule. Republican defection on account of prohibition, although it is rather late in showing itself, is one of these. Then the nomination of HUTCHINSON on a platform indorsing the new laws regulating the railroads, after he had been a conspicuous and persistent opponent of those laws, disgusted the Republicans who had joined the Democrats in supporting those measures. Besides these discontents the Iowa farmers who want tariff revision are obviously getting tired of waiting for the Republican party to give it to them in a satis-

ONE of the best results of yesterday's elections was the demonstration by full trial in Massachusetts and by partial trial here in St. Louis that the Australian ballot system is a success. It relieved the polls of a horde of heelers, vote-buyers and ballot-box stuffers and accomplished without inconvenience or injustice to any the object for which it was devised. Every ground of opposition to this important reform has been swept away. Opposition to it hereafter will simply mean opposition to honest elections.

THE spirit of tariff reform, civil service reform, ballot a form, anti-monopoly and anti-boodleism is marching on. The result of the elections yesterday should teach President HARRI on that he is not as big a man as he thought he was and that breaking pledges and inking at corruption are excellent mean of defeating his own party. There some interesting handwriting on the wall in the returns from Virginia Towa, Massachusetts and Ohio.

storm, within ten miles of each other, and the two crews were picked up by Capt. Cooke of the Atalants, October 25, within an hour of each other. It was on his outward trip to Jamaica and after carrying the shipwrecked people to Montego Bay he brought them to this port. The rescue was a most gallant one, having been made while the hurricane was still at its height. While the Spotless was fast going to pieces the wife of Capt. Etheridge was urging her husband and the sailors not to abandon the ship. The crew were lashed to the pumps and were weak and exhausted, and Mrs. Etheridge, wrapped in an olicioth suit of her husband, walked the deck of the sinking vessel, carrying food and drink to the men. When her husband failed from weakness she begged to be allowed to take his place, but the sailors redoubled their efforts and refused to permit her to do so. The heroine of the story declined to talk of her experiences, but those with whom she worked were loud in their praise of her bravery. The Spotless sailed October 15, from Savannah for Baltimore with a deck load of lumber. Just north of Hatteras she was struck by a terrific southeast hurrieans, which soon centered around to the northeast. The schooner was hugging the coast and attempted to haul off shore, but in doing so she lost her spanker, foresail and jib. Then a big sea threw the vessel almost on her beam, and before she was righted the fore topmast broke off. The heavy seas next carried away the boats and caused the vessel to spring aleak. All the next day the men labored at the pumps, and on the day following, weak, wollen and bruised, they would have given up in despair but for the Captain's wife. She found a lew potatoes, and with the aid of an oil stove saved from the ruins she cooked them. While Mrs. Etheridge was cooking this last morsel of food the vessel was rolling, and she had to recline on a sofa and hold the stove in its place. That morning a steamer passed close, but without seeing the schooner. At a o'clock in the afternoon, led by Mrs. Etherid

A SNATCH THISE SENTENCED.

On a plea of gullty to the charge of grand larceny Judge Normile of the Criminal Court this morning sentenced Hux Walton to two years in the Penitentiary at sefferson City. A noile prosequi was then entered by Circuit Attorner Clover in the onse against Walton for burgiary and larceny. On August 21 last the prisoner, who is a young negro, committed a bold daylight robbery. At about 3 o'clock in the afternoon he entered the jeweiry establishment of Mr. Speyer, 718 Morgan street, and snipwreck, involving the heroism of a brave little woman, was brought to the city yesterday on the steamer Atalanta, which is in the West Indian fruit trade. The victims were Capt. E. S. Etheridge and his brave wife of the American schooner Spotless, and the skipper and five sailors of the Beile of the Bay. Both vessels were wrecked in the same storm, within ten miles of each other, and the two crews were picked up by Capt. "The centennial anniversary of the establishment of the Catholic hierarchy in the United States, which is to be celebrated with rifitting pomp and ceremony under happy aspices in Baltimore, next November, may asturally be expected to bring together an emposing assemblage of the hierarchy and clergy, as well as a large concourse of the Catholic isity, who will be eager to take part in an event so interesting in inself and so impressive and suggestive in its religious and historic significance.

"That the Catholic laymen of the United States should noid at the same time and place a general meeting or congress would seem most appropriate. When the suggestion of such a meeting was happily conceived and put forth it was everywhere met with expressions of warm approval. It was felt that a congress of the Catholics of the United States, called without reference to national or local lines, on a broad and generous platform, could not fall to be productive of good in the could not fall to be productive of good.

"It would demonstrate the unity of the entire Catholic body in all that concerns the principles of our holy religion; the harmony, mutual attachment and good will subsisting among the different orders in the church—the hierarchy, the clergy and the latty—and it would moreover afford an opportunity to testify in a public manner the loyalty of the Catholics of the United States to the Constitutional and all and of the land to which they have on and laws of the land, to which they have variably been loyal in the past and may, ith equal confidence, be relied on to be faith-il and devoted in the future."

THE ADMISSION OF DELEGATES. Since this is the first congress there is no orgaization and no regular delegates have olics. The Committee on Organization is composed of Wm. J. Onahan of Chicago. Chairman; Henry J. Spaunhorst, St. Louis, and Daniel A. Rudd, Cincinnati. This committee, the ordinaries of the dioceses and the forty-three members, have tickets, which are issued at their discretion, and these tickets admit the bearer to the floor, to all privileges of the congress and to the debate.

A special committee has invited a number of gentlemen to read papers, and St. Louis is represented by Mr. Henry J. Spaunhorst, whose subject will be, "Societies and Organization."

THE ATTENDANCE.

There be representative men of the Catholic laity from all parts of the country and a very large attendance is expected. St. Louisans who wrote to Baltimore hotels to engage rooms found that they had all been taken a month or more ago and provision had to be made for them in lodging and boarding houses. The congress has been approved by the authorities of the church and it has become very popular among the inity. It is peculiarly a lay assemblage, though there will be cardinals, archbishops, bishops and priests present to witness and hear the proceedings. The papers, however, will all be read by laymen and the debate will be in the hands of the lay representatives. Besides the papers and discussions, the congress will perfect an organization which may result in future congresses at stated periods for the discussion of matters of especial interest to laymen. The dedication of the Catholic University is another event of importance which will be of interest to those who attend. The institution is one in which all Catholics are interested and the opening of the University will be memorable.

A REPRESENTATIVE FROM ROME.

A Triffing Blaze. At 9:300 o'clock this morning an alarm of fire was turned in from the southeast corner of Fourteenth street and Lucas avenue. The fire was in the basement of 1232 Lucas avenue, occupied by M. L. Johnson. The damage to the building was 455 and to the furniture 535, the latter by water. The fire started in a basement room, which was occupied by an aged agro, and is supposed to have been set on five. The property is owned by Sandar Higgins, the Sheridan avenue. A COTTON OIL MONEY SHOBTAGE. rts of a Sensational Character Comin Out of This Trust.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6. - The Times has the following: Wall street is likely to be treated to some sensational disclosures. There is newly discovered trouble on the inside of the American Cotton Oil Trust. Accounts are mixed. There is a "shortage." The figures are big. Perhaps an entire change of plans will have to be made by the magnates who have undertaken the trust's reorganization and even the scheme for converting the trust into an ordimeet in Baltimore on Mon-day, November 11, and the though insiders insist that that programme day, November II, and the gentlemen who will attend it will leave to-morrow morning for Baltimore, where the congress will be called together. The purpose of it is to celebrate the centennial of the establishment of the Catholic hierarchy in America. The growth of the church since then is well known, and the Catholic laity thought the occasion one fit for celebration and rejoicing. The purpose of the says in opening:

AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT.

The following statement of an official character was received this morning by the Gaylord-Blessing private wire:

From New York, 10 a. m.: By reason of the sensational reports this morning respecting at shortage in the accounts of the Cotton Oil Trust, Mr. F. P. Alcott, one of the Committee on Reorganization, says: "I feel called upon, for the protection of the certificate holders, to announce that the report of the Reorganization Committee to be presented at the meeting to-day will state under the official authority of the Board of Trustees, that the total net loss definitely ascertained to all the trust organizations is the sum of $277,000, and no more."

Trustees Moss and Flagier have resigned.

trust organizations is the sum of $277,000, and no more."

Trustees Moss and Flagler have resigned.

The following was also received by Gaylord-Blessing, dated New York, 2 p. m.: The Cotton Oil meeting is again crowded, and great interest shown. The report of the committee appointed at the meeting November 1 was read. It stated that the President and Treasurer of the trust, for the purpose of and with the intent, so they state, of maintaining and strengthening its credit, have deemed it necessary, or desirable, to support the price of the certificates in the market by carrying certain trust certificate accounts in the name and for the secount of the American Oil Co., and without the knowledge of the trustees of the trust or the company. The accounts are closed with a loss to the company of $527,511. The officers have disclaimed legal responsibility in the matter, but have made a substantial contribution to the same, Mr. Flagler contributing $150,000 and Mr. Moss $100,000, making the net loss to the company $277,511. The trustees recommended the matter be adjusted in this way, which the meeting agreed to.

The Trust plan for reorganizing is: Its property to be merred into the American Cotton Oil Co.; the latter to issue $21,092,000 common stock and $15,000,500 6 per cent non-accumulative preferred stock; any balance in excess of the amount required on the exchange to be held, used and disposed of by the directors. Trust certificates to be exchanged—50 per cent in new common $21,092,000; 30 per cent in new preferred, $10,546,000. Trust certificates to be deposited with the Central Trust Co, and application be made to list the stock on the Stock Exchange.

MR. MORTON'S DENIAL, The Vice-President Not Bunning a Bar to

His Apartment House, CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 6 .- The Inter-Ocean prints an authoritative denial of the story about a bar in Vice-President Morton's Apartment House in Washington. The denial was sent to the Rev. John B. Shaw of this city, who had written the Vice-President regarding the matter. Following is the denial: ELLERSLIE, RHIVE CLIFF-ON-HUDSON, Nov. 8.

DEAR SID—in reply to your letter of the Sthult, addressed to Mr. Morton, I beg to say that there is no truin in the statement made in the telegram to the Deliy New., which you inclose, that there is a bar connected with the new building exceted and owned by Mr. Morton in Washington. The building is conducted as a family Apartment House, apartments being lessed by the year and Mr. Morton has never exterialned the idea of permitting any part of it to be used as a bar. Very respectfully, E. S. RILTON, Private Secretary.

THE SILVER CONVENTION

AN ENTHUSIASTIC BUSINESS MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

teports Made From the Sub-Committee and Appropriations Made to Carry Ou Their Programmes - Further Non tions Beceived-The Trunk Lines Make

EGINNING at 40'clock yesterday afternoon the Executive Committee for the National Silver Convention dis cussed the preliminary arrangements for that gathering for two solid hours and over. It was one of the most earnest meetings that has ever been held in St. Louis for any cause. The committee was called to order by Mr. James Campbell, Chairman, with Mr. Albert Singer as Secretary. The attendance was very large. The order of business was the reception of the reports of the sub-comon Invitations, reported the progress of his committee work and recommended that invi-tations be sent to all members of Congress, Governors of States and Territories and such rominent gentlemen as might be suggested graphing, on heavy card paper, with a border of hammered silver. The report was recelved and the committee continued.

The report of Mr. J. D. Abeles, Chairman of the Committee on Arrangements, was then read. Mr. Abeles has, as already published, secured

GRAND MUSIC HALL for the convention meetings. In reference to the other work of his committee he asked more definite instructions, and after some discussion it was decided that in certain natters, where both committees have an interest, the Chairmen of the Arrangements and Entertainment Committees should act jointly. Mr. W. C. Little, Chairman of the Committe on Transportation, made a verbal report, stating that all of the railway associations heard from had made a rate of one and onethird fare on the certificate plan. He had yet to hear finally from the Trunk Lines and the Southern Association. These had both remained to formally vote upon the matter rate would not be confined to delegates to the convention, but would be open to visitor also. The railroad companies would adver tise the rate on their lines.

Mr. Joe J. Mullally, Chairman of the Committee on Entertainment, reported at length, and an hour's discussion was devoted to his Exchange. It was also suggested that the Music Hall could be utilized by laying the floor, as was done for the Velled Prophet's ball, thus giving the full space of the hall and stage. Both of these plans were regarded favorably, and the committee left to act. The committee will also prepare a programme for the time occupied by the convention, secure carriages and music, etc., and arrange for the visit of the delegates and visitors to the theaters. No definite action was taken as to this, but it is probable that the original proposition, to secure one house, will be abandoned and the theaters issue a special invitation, to be distributed through the Entertainment Committee, admitting the person holding it to admission at any house.

In connection with the Entertainment Committended, of course, for DELEGATES AND INVITED GUESTS, who will be in such large numbers that there was a feeling that the number present from St. Louis should be limited. Otherwise it would look like an entertainment for St. Louis people rather than visitors. Finally, on motion of Mr. Max Rotany, it was decided to limit it to delegates and alternates, invited guests and subscribers.

Mr. A. J. Well, Chairman of the Finance Committee, reported as to collections made it to delegates and alternates, invited guests and subscribers.

Air. A. J. Well, Chairman of the Finance Committee, reported as to collections made for the funds. Notwithstanding the subscriptions made for the World's Fair, the convention committees following up those working in the interest of the Fair, good subscriptions had been made, and the money paid in, so that there was no doubt as to there being ample funds to take care of all the arrangements for the convention.

ple funds to take care of all the arrangements for the convention.

The Press Committee reported correspondence extending to all of the States and Territories of an encouraging character.

This concluded the reports of chairmen of sub-committees, and on motion the Executive Committees as to expenditures, and made appropriations to the Entertainment, Arrangement and Press Committees. The committee then adjourned subject to the call of the chair.

FURTHER NOMINATIONS.

The following nominations for delegates were received by the Executive Committee this morning:

OLD GUARD OF PROTECTION.

A German Camp Organized With Seventy-five Members—The List of Officers. About seventy-five members of the Knights and Ladies of Honor met in their hall, No. 902 South Fourth street, last night, for the purpose of organizing a German Camp of the Old Guard of Protection. The installing offcers were Past-Grand Commander Thomas W. Seymour, P. G. O. George Coehran, Com-rades Otto Schoen, P. Monoghan, Rastberger, Stachl, Powell, Joseph Giles, Sisters Scanlan, Bailey, Schwartzman and others of Alpha Camp.

Two candidates were initiated. When the name for the lodge came up it was unablimously decided to call in St. Louis Camp, which name it will be known under. The candidates all belong to various lodges of the Knights and Ladles of Honor, and only those that belong to that order can affiliate themselves with the Old Guards. The following officers were elected: Post Commander, F. W. Plass; Commander, C. A. Brenmehl; Ylee-Commander, Rudelph Todtenhaupt; Chaplain, Anna Hoerie; Adjutant, Soustian Heine; Enrolling Officer, Dr. Chas. Weinsberg: Sergeant, Lizzie Schoenfeldt; Guard, Ben Wilhecter; Sentry, J. M. Albrecht; Treasurer, Barbara Fries.

After the election the installation of officers took place by Post Commander Saymour, who made saveral interesting remarks on the advantages of the Old Guard of Protection. The party then proceeded to Heitkamp's Hotel, where an excellent spread was in readiness.

A NEW ROAD PROPOSED. To Connect St. Louis, East St. Louis and

dinance presented by the Citizens treet Railway Co. of Belleville, Ill., is again sefore the Belleville Council in a modified form. The company proposes to establish a new line between Belleville and St. Louis, but in the original ordinance there were some provisions which met with serious objections. For a considerable length of time this company has agitated the question of connecting Belleville with East St. Louis by an electric railroad, which would not only carry passengers, but would do a freight business. The idea of running freight cars over the principal streets in Belleville and East St. Louis was the objectionable feature. Otherwise the Belleville Assembly favored having the road put in operation as quickly as possible. The expense of travel between Belleville and this city has been an objectionable feature for years and the projectors of this road which is to run over the rockroad from Belleville to East St. Louis promise to give a cheap rate of travel. The ordinance, after being read at last meeting of the Belleville City Connell, was referred to a committee. ns which met with serious object

MILLS & AVERILL,

S. E. Cor. Broadway and Pine. WILL MEET TO-NIGHT

To Arrange for the Organization of the New Carondelet Club. The movement to organize a new social and business club in Carondelet is receiving the warm indorsement and support of the citizens generally of the South End, and the promo ers of the enterprise feel assured of its success at the very inception. There is no doubt whatever of the need and usefulness of such an organization and its opportunities for an organization and its opportunities for securing beneficial results will be many. No time is being lost by the persons charged with the task of arranging the pre-liminary details. A meeting of the Committee on Constitution and By-Laws was held last night and a plan of organization decided upon. The Committee on Location reported favorable progress. Both committees will report to the general meeting of the club this ovening at 8 o'clock at Germania Turner Hall and with the adoption of the reports and election of officers the permanent organization will be effected. With the progress made it is certain that the club will be in its own quarters in a week or two at the farthest.

Memories of the War.

Maj. E. W. McIntosh is in the city for a few days and last night entertained a party of young people at his brother's residence on loth Eighth street. Maj. McIntosh is an ble speaker and travels about through the ountry lecturing on "Prison Life in Dixie." liustrated with large oil paintings showing the interior and exterior of Andersonville Prison. The old veteran intersperses his lectures with patriotic sings of his own composition, and has an abundant fund of original funyisms. He exhibits a file he carried through the war and through Andersonville, and carries with him photographs taken at the time of his release, when starvation and disease had reduced his weight to 65 pounds, he could not stand alone and was insane from suffering. It was two years before he recovered his factuates by the stable and go over just for his cwn enjoyment. Mrs. Casastt, it is no secret, likes Paris better than philadelphia as a place of residence—why at the carried through the war. The Major will be at U. V. U. Hali, 700 South Fourth street, Friday evening and all old soldiers are invited.

Major the Cassatt Stable, "said a veteran the street whisky for no Kentuckian ever sips whisky—"the didn't have any stake horses in it. The Bard was out long since, and Eurus, even if the recovered his old form, would be so heavily handcapped as to make winning over him impracticable. The Cassatt youngsters were no good, and only made a fair showing with Hayward on their backs. Now, if Matt has another some great seleme of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., in whose affairs he is interested the sum of the parture to Europe for a year foreshadows of the old soldiers whom he entertains is his initiation of a battle on, the same from suffering. It was two years before he recovered his factual to the proposed and the parture of Europe for a year foreshadows of the close of the parture to Europe for a year foreshadows of the close of the close of the close of the country of the parture to Europe for a year foreshadows of the clo forth Eighth street. Maj. McIptosh is an ble speaker and travels about through the country lecturing on "Prison Life in Dixie," lustrated with large oil paintings showing the interior and exterior of Andersonville Prison. It was two years before he recovered his faculties, but now he is the picture of robust health. Something which stirs the memories of the old soldiers whom he entertains is his imitation of a battle on, the snare drum which he carried through the war. The Major will be at U. V. U. Hall, 700 South Fourth street, Friday svening and all old soldiers are invited.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE LEAGUE CHATS ABOUT THE BROTHERHOOD.

Pronounces Their Card a Weak Deen-ment-"Old Man" Bayward May Ride for Senator Hearst's Stable—A Criticiam of Badge's Running-Racing at Nash-ville, Elizabeth and Clifton-Sporting

Brotherhood was more generally discussed here to-day than the political batties going on in the various States. At League headquarter President Young was found busily engage papers, intent upor gleaning the details gleaning the detailed of yesteadry's meeting at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. In reply to a question from your correspondent he said: "I have just concluded a hasty reading of the Brotherhood proclamation, and I must say empty style of its construction. I have for sevral weeks been convinced that they intended to declare war against the League, and I have forcible presentation of their side of the case. There is not a single sentence in their address that appeals to the sympathy of the base ball public, but what can be overturned by the League without any misstatement on the lat-

"Have you had any correspondence with your colleagues of the League relative to the probable course to be pursued?"

"I have had no communication from any one connected with the League since the roclamation was issued. I have talked with number of persons on the subject, and I have received various suggestions as to how the League might defeat the Brotherhood's scheme, but I have refrained from expressing any opinion on the matter, preferring to await the meeting of the League next week."

"What is the nature of the suggestions made?"

tion. There are some persons who advise the League to try and break the Brotherhood ranks by buying off some of the most desira-ble players, trusting to the others to follow like a flock of sheep. Of course you can uderstand why such a scheme would never do. It would be placing a premium on de-sertion and unfaithfulness and he in direct conflict with the best inof the game. It has also been suggested that; a combination be tion would be advisable, and that idea meets with considerable favor. It is evident the Brotherhood will, if success attends their players, but they are waiting now to see how they are going to come out in the contest with the League. There are other propositions the League. There are other propositions that have been made, all of which will be duly considered at the League meeting.

There is a feeling of unrest among the minor leagues, as they fear that the League will break the national agreement and gobble up all their desirable players. There is no occasion for alarm in that respect, as the League proposes to live up to its pleage in the future, as it has done in the past. The friends of honest base ball in this city are looking for the League to sustain the reputation and credit of the game by meeting the Brotherhood issue fairly and squarely. If the League is prepared to throw aside all selfish motives and take a decided step in behalf of the pations of the game they have an excellent opportunity to do so now."

'What's Hayward, the Dean of the Chapter ot Jockeys, going to do now that his late master has gone off the turf?" was a question asked several times last week in the St.

Concerning Badge's defeat last Saturday, New York exchange says: "There was no good reason why Badge should have been beaten on Saturday. He was simply short of work and ought not to have been sent to the post. Jockey clubs ought to do something to and acting in a peculiar manner. He pisced him under arrest and found a loaded revolver on his person. This morning Judge Cady fined the defendant $25 and sent him to the Work-House.

The had not run away he would, as matters turned out, have been any amount of scandal. Fortunately there was not much money lost on Badge. Incidents of this sort ought not to be permitted, and Mr. Green Morris ought not at the World's Exposition, Paris, France.

The second meeting of the Western Foot-Ball Association was held last evening at Dr. J. C. Cassel's office. Mr. James Skerret was elected First Vice-President and Mr. Clarence elected First Vice-President and Mr. Ciarence England and Daniel O'Keefe were appointed a committee to arrange a schedule for the six clubs in the association, three games to be played each Sunday for fifteen Sundays. This will give each club a series of three games with every club in the association. It was decided that after the schedule has been formed no other club will be taken into the contest unless there should be a vacancy, when the new club will be required to play out the unfinished schedule of the team whose place it has been elected to fill. Each club is required to hand in to the secretary of the association the names of its players one week prior to playing them.

Ital party at an election.

"This is an abuse and an evil for which no party can be justly held responsible, but which has become a tradition of all parties, and with the rapid increase of patronage the demoralizing consequences are already startling. It turns the patronage of the Government, designed solely for the public convenience, into a wast bribery rund. It breeds general corruption by teaching the citizen to expect payment for discharge of a duty incumbent upon every voter, and it tends to expect payment for discharge of a duty indumbent upon every voter, and it tends to transform an election from a popular verdict upon differing public policies into a desperate struggle for the emoluments of place.

"The disastrous effect of this corrupting system, not only upon politics and the public service, but upon the standard of public duty and official conduct, no less than upon the self-respect of the people and a pure public spirit, cannot be too seriously stated or too carefully considered. The greatest American statesmen of all parties, the most eminent jurists, the most patriotic and devoted divines and political students and observers of all countries have pointed out the nature and consequences of this evil, the correction of which is a necessity transcending in importance all merely party aims and political policies of administration.

"Already public opinion has manifested it-

policies of administration.

"Already public opinion has manifested itself so strongly that admirable national and State laws of limited application have been enacted and their honest enforcement is conceiled to be of the greatest public benefit. But in such a movement nothing should be considered done while anything remains to do. Every patriot in every pursuit and profession, and especially every leader and guide of the public mind may well assist in the beneficent work.

"The moral appeal, which shall instruct, inspire and strengthen public opinion to complete the good work, it seems to us, would come from the pulpit with peculiar power. Believing that its its office to apply eternal principles of religion and morals to human conduct, and to aid nations as well as individuals to walk in the right way; holding that George Mason of Virginia spoke a terrible truth, which history confirms, in saying that Providence punjeses national sine by national calamities, we appeal to the pulpit to demand of the public conscience that specific and asknowledged evils affecting the nighest public welfare shall be redressed by simple, obvious and adequate means.

"In respectfully suggesting therefore that on Thanksgiving Day or such other day as may seem to you fitting you should devote a sermon to the consideration of this subject we confidently invite your earnest co-operation in a Christian endeavor to quicken the conscience of the people and to lead the nation to righteenwass."
